LinkedOUT: Campus Philly Connects LGBT Students with Philly's Vibrant Community

TD Bank and the Independence Business Alliance sponsor first of its kind Philadelphia LGBT networking event

PHILADELPHIA—On October 24, Center City's Top of the Tower welcomes Campus Philly's first LGBT (lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender) event, linking college students to employers seeking talent in the Greater Philadelphia region. Campus Philly is proud to participate in National Coming Out Month, and offer LGBT allied and identified college students an exclusive event for them.

Students have a chance to network with representatives from Comcast, Day & Zimmerman, PricewaterhouseCoopers, TD Bank, T.J. Maxx and Vanguard. A panel discussion about being out in the workplace and other topics will feature Evan Urbania of ChatterBlast Media and Jenna Flateman Posner of LevelUP.

LinkedOUT is produced with support from TD Bank and the Independence Business Alliance, two Philadelphia entities that view diversifying the workplace intrinsic to their missions and business identities.

"TD Bank is proud to be working with Campus Philly to retain diverse talent in the Greater Philadelphia region," says Robert Pompey, Senior Vice President, Credit Management Administration, TD Bank. "The bank recognizes the importance of supporting the fabric of community life, which we do every day by sustaining an inclusive and diverse workplace that reflects the people, cultures and languages of the communities we serve."

LinkedOUT is one of the many career events produced by Campus Philly with the purpose of connecting a diverse group of students from its 28 partner colleges and universities to regional employers. Campus Philly continuously works with its partners to be the #1 resource for job and internship seeking students across the region.

"LinkedOUT positions Campus Philly as a great connector and ally for our students who are taking a more targeted and personal approach to job or internship searches," says Jennifer Rossi, Assistant Director for Employer Relations at the Saint Joseph's University Career Center.

LinkedOUT is free to current students at Campus Philly partner colleges and universities. For a complete list of Campus Philly partners, visit campusphilly.org/our-college-partners.
